.....RESPONDENT(S)

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue an appropriate writ, more in the nature of Mandamus, declaring the action of the respondents in not selecting and admitting the petitioner into B.ED. (Maths) course in the 4th respondent college and selecting and admitting candidates with lesser marks as being arbitrary, illegal, unconstitutional and issue a consequential direction to forthwith admit the petitioner into B.ED.Course (Maths) in the 4th respondent college and issue such other writ, order or direction as the Hon'ble High Court deems fit and proper in the circumstances of the case

Counsel for the Petitioner:MR.P.LAKSHMA REDDY

Counsel for the Respondent No.: MR.M.V.S.SURESH KUMAR

The Court made the following :

ORDER:

The matter relates to admission into B.Ed (Maths) course for the academic year 1997-98. This Court while admitting the writ petition granted interim direction by order dated 24-10-1997, which reads as under;

> "There shall be interim direction to the respondents to admit the petitioner into B.Ed (Maths) course in the 4th respondent's college for the academic year 1997-98, provided any candidate is admitted with a lesser rank than the petitioner."

Learned counsel for petitioner called absent. Learned counsel for respondent submitted that the cause in the writ petition does not survive and it became in-fructuous.

In the circumstances, the writ petition is dismissed as in-fructuous. No costs.
